

The Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures (CSMC) announces an Informal Talk

by

Prof. Dr. Paola Buzi
Sapienza University of Rome

Literary Manuscripts, Documentary Sources and Archaeological Contexts: a Fruitful Interaction. The Case of the Vita Onuphrii.

The biographical account related to the Egyptian anchorite Onophrius (Vita Onuphrii) represents an interesting case, among many others, where uniquely combining literary and documentary manuscripts on the one side and archaeology on the other, it is possible to reconstruct the fortune of a devotional practice and a literary tradition from Late Antiquity to Early Middle Ages.

Thursday, 10 September 2015 at 11 am
Room 0001, CSMC