

The Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures (CSMC) announces an Informal Talk

by

Dr. Kalliopi Lempidaki
Petra Kappert Fellow at the CSMC

Funerary Inscriptions with Fines from Mainland Greece: Evidence Regarding the Use and Reuse of the Funerary Monuments.

Ancient Greek funerary inscriptions that contain a fine pertaining to the infringement of the founder's will constitute a distinct group of funerary inscriptions. They provide information regarding the use and reuse of funerary monuments and the legal norms that lie behind them. Therefore, Ancient Greek funerary inscriptions with fines allow us to understand the way the graves were bequeathed.

Monday, 20 June 2016 at 4 pm
Room 2002, CSMC