A Hand-written Family Genealogy; Constructing the Family in Republican China: Shandong 1944

構建民國時期的家系：1944年山東

This talk will be about a manuscript with only thirteen pages, and no title on its cover page. The family-genealogy really is a working document rather than a finished piece. The terse entries reveal much about the family's past. Its purpose was to preserve the existence of a family that might not survive until 1945.
